"...Winemaker Peter Gago took over in 2002, a cool year that produced one of the most elegant vintages of Grange, and his team has since brought out a number of wines destined to be legends... The current release of Grange, the 2006...seems to be imbued with some of Gago's kinetic energy, the ripeness of the fruit achieving something close to perfect form... Penfolds now has 21 Winery of the Year awards, more than any brand worldwide."
