JADIS 2010
SANCERRE BLANC

« One of the top wines from Henri Bourgeois, this is rich and ageworthy. Its green and white fruits push through a concentrated structure to give a dense wine with ripeness and great elegance. » - R.V.

D'ANTAN 2009
SANCERRE BLANC

« This is a ripe and full-bodied; it benefitted from the warm vintage, offering rich yellow-fruit flavors to go with its touches of toast and sweet herb. On the finish, acidity and minerality come forward to suggest its aging potential. » - R.V.

LA BOURGEOISE
2009
SANCERRE BLANC

« Old vines have produced a ripe wine. It has notes of toast, spice and yellow fruit as well as bright acidity. With its structure, depth of flavor and density, it should age well over 3–4 years. » - R.V.

LA CHAPELLE
DES AUGUSTINS
2010
SANCERRE BLANC

« The flint and sand soil of this vineyard brings out the minerally, steely character of this taut, tight wine. Herbaceous, flavors of pineapple and white fruit, the structure dominates. Give this impressive wine another year or two. » - R.V.
